

Europa-Park turns into a winter wonderland

Fact Sheet Winter

November 24, 2023

Decorations:

- 3,000 fir trees
- 10,000 Christmas tree baubles
- 1,500 decorative gifts and 1,500 ribbons
- 1,000 poinsettias
- 18-metre-high Christmas pyramid in Iceland
- Grand Christmas trees in German Allee, in the England themed area and on Luxembourg Square

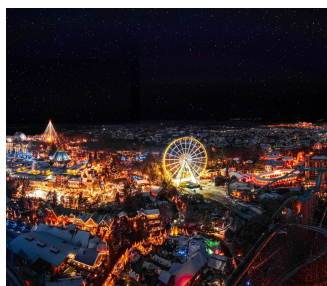

More winter specials:

- Art exhibition 'The chickens are laughing – Peter Gaymann's drawings in Europa-Park' in the 'blue fire dome' in the Iceland theme area.
- ERDINGER Urweiße Hutt´n with hearty delicacies in the Portugal themed area
- Christmas market at the Europe Fountain and in the historic Balthasar Palace Park as well as quaint Christmas market in 'Ireland - Children's World'
- Kambly Winter Bakery in the French themed area
- Indoor play area 'WinterWunderWelt' in Spain

- 55m high 'Bellevue' Ferris wheel in the Portuguese themed area has been completely renovated
 - 42 heated gondolas with panoramic views
 - Max. 242 people
 - Wheelchair accessible
 - Braking energy is temporarily stored and used for lighting and heating
- Santa Claus' office 'Post Office Himmelsporten' in the English themed area
- Nativity scene exhibition in the Norwegian Stave Church
- Magical Circus Revue with a new show program by award-winning artists
- 'FIS Snowkidz - Children's Ski School' and cross-country skiing world 'Skitty World Nordic'
- 3D video mapping show 'Miraculeux – Mapping Show'
- Ice show 'Surpr'Ice presents a Christmas Dream' in the Greek themed area
- 'A Christmas Novel' at the Globe Theatre in the English themed area
- Evening 'Ed's Starlight Parade'
- Show 'Josefina's Winter Ride' on the lake in the Austrian themed area
- 'Crazy Christmas – Again Every Year' with Ross Antony and Paul Reeves from 13th to 17th December 2023 at the Globe Theatre
- Dinner Show at Europa-Park Teatro (17th November 2023 to 17th February 2024)

Europa-Park turns into a winter wonderland

The winter season promises magical hours