These new attractions await at Europa-Park

March 13, 2025

50 Years of Europa-Park: ‘Celebrating under the Stars’ is our motto.

- Two midnight openings: On 12 July, Germany’s largest theme park’s birthday, and 23 August, when the 10th anniversary of JUNIOR CLUB at Europa-Park will be celebrated, guests will be able to enjoy action, adrenaline and fun until midnight.
- Themed festivals: Through different themed festivals throughout the year, the culture and cuisine of different European countries is put on display.
- New parade: Joyously colourful costumes and artistically designs bring European spirit to Europa-Park. With dancers and acrobats accompanying it, the parade shows Europe’s magic and diversity in all their glory.
- 50 Years Exhibition: In the Silver Star Hall, visitors can interactively discover exciting insights into the history and milestones of 50 years of Europa-Park. There is also a preview of the new themed area Monaco, which will open in 2026. Among other things, the glamorous atmosphere of the Principality and exciting insights into the famous Grand Prix with rare, valuable cars from Formula E and the princely collection of the Grimaldi family await.

- In the 'Art Contest', fans have been able to creatively rework their highlights and experiences from 50 years of Europa-Park. The best submissions are to be exhibited at the 'ART BOULEVARD 2025' in Europa-Park's blue fire Dome.
- 'Garden of the Stars': An impressive art installation by Otmar Hörl in the historic castle park.
- Avenue of Sculptures: This freely accessible art project near the 'Bell Rock' hotel is an initiative of Roland Mack and, in cooperation with the world-famous Würth art collection, displays 15 sculptures by international artists, some of which are large-scale.
- Nordic Festival of Lights at Rulantica: Between 13 January and 21 March 2025, visitors get to experience the water world completely differently. The Nordic Festival of Lights will set the tone for a dazzling anniversary season at Europa-Park, with magical illuminations and dreamlike shows and entertainment on offer.
- Extensive merchandising for the 50th anniversary with three collections.

GRAND PRIX OF EUROPE

'GRAND PRIX OF EUROPE' Film

Just in time for the Jubilee, popular mascots Ed and Edda will be taking over the big screen from 24 July 2025. In collaboration with Warner Bros. Film Productions Germany, MACK Magic is releasing the animated film GRAND PRIX OF EUROPE. This film tells the exciting story of a race round Europe, inspiring with humour, action and all your favourite characters from Europa-Park. The film is accompanied by a book, an audio play and an exclusive Tonie figure with Ed Euromaus and more.

New GRAND PRIX EDventure family attraction

Tying in with the film, a new interactive 3D family dark ride will be opening in the Luxembourg themed area. In the innovative GRAND PRIX EDventure gameplay theatre, visitors get to join Ed & Edda's racing crew and accompany the two stars on a fast-paced car race across Europe. Ten different scenes interactively transport guests to iconic European cities and breathtaking film sets from the feature film.

GRAND PRIX Racing Champions

This official video game for all the family brings the beloved characters and exciting film locations to the homes of Europa-Park fans and promises racing action for the whole family. Available on Nintendo Switch, PlayStation 5, Xbox Series X|S and PC via stream.

YULLBE Go: GRAND PRIX Mission: Recharge

The new YULLBE GO experience 'Grand Prix Mission: Recharge', developed by MACK One and VR Coaster, immerses guests into a thrilling and unprecedented racing adventure.

Gastronomy:

Ball meets Bowl

The Cola-Cola Sportbar in the Arena of Football sparkles in a new setup. Guests can enjoy live sports in comfort over crispy paninis and bowlfuls of fresh.

Tex-Mex at 'Don Quichotte' restaurant

Guests experience a new mix of vibrant flavours, warm hospitality and unique ambience.

Bodega Mexican Bar & Lounge

The Bodega Mexican Bar & Lounge invites you to enjoy Mexican cuisine at lunchtime as an extension of Don Quichotte restaurant. In the afternoon, a fine snack menu is available before the Bodega transforms into a convivial location in the evening. An all-you-can-eat taco selection awaits guests there.

Shopping:

German Allee

At the redesigned Shop in the German Allee, unique souvenirs await visitors young and old.

50 Years for your Home

The limited edition 50 Years collection offers unique collection pieces, including an exclusive edition of Monopoly and a collector's album, as well as the official Chronicle. Five new merchandise collections are also on offer. In the games section, unique playing cards and special anniversary prizes await.

New shows:

'The Legend of Zorro':

Visitors get to experience a new, thrilling stunt show in the newly designed Spanish Arena. An adventure full of action and suspense awaits: Breathtaking dressage, spectacular vaulting artistry and thrilling sword fights makes the legend of the masked hero come to life.

'Surpr'Ice Presents THE RACE – Ed vs. Nachtkrabb'

The new ice show takes viewers to London for the 'Grand Prix of Europe'. Amidst sparkling costumes and impressive acrobatic elegance, guests are there live when Ed fights the mysterious Nachtkrabb for victory.

'Big Moments – The Celebration Show'

The new show at the Europa-Park Teatro uniquely brings 50 years of Europa-Park to life. From unforgettable attractions and spectacular shows to iconic hotels — the production leads guests through a journey of half a century full of magical moments.

'Scala dell'Arte'

Scala dell'Arte takes guests on a journey to a world full of passion, elegance and spectacular surprises. The show features live Italian classics, the incomparable Europa-Park show ballet and breathtaking world-class artistry. The unique fusion of art and emotion transforms the Italian open-air stage into a lively piazza and enchants with a 'dolce vita' feeling just like in bella Italia!

'Simsala – Saving Fairy-tale Land'

What would the world be without fairy-tales? Everyone needs the hopeful stories about Snow White, Hans in Luck and the many brave knights and lovely princesses. To save Fairy-tale Land, Europa-Park has once again brought the magic team 'Timothy Trust & Diamond' to the Globe Theatre.

'Happy Birthday JUNIOR CLUB'

In the 50th anniversary year of Europa-Park, the JUNIOR CLUB is also celebrating its 10th anniversary. The JUNIOR CLUB Studios have many exciting surprises in store for the youngest guests. Whether it's a magic, artistry or interactive show, the JUNIOR CLUB guarantees happy children and smiling faces, because Ed, Edda and their friends make the day better for children and parents with a regularly changing show programme. A highlight for the whole family!

'Esencia Flamenca'

Guests are immersed in the world of flamenco and experience how love is conquered in a fascinating duel during this live show – a game of fire, heart and emotions.

'DOBLE ENERGÍA by Saly Brothers'

A double dose of energy up close: the Saly Brothers have already performed at the world's largest circus festivals and are now presenting their Bola act on the Spanish Open-Air Stage at Europa-Park. Nobody masters the lightning-fast bolas – wooden balls on ropes – like the Saly Brothers. They combine the fast-paced circling of the balls with rhythmic drumming and energetic dancing.

'The Magical Atlas – Puppet Show'

The Magic Atlas opens at Limerick Castle – and with it unfolds a world full of mysterious places, fabulous creatures and thrilling stories. Page by page, it takes the audience through distant lands and across majestic continents, where legends come to life and hidden treasures await discovery. An extraordinary combination of puppetry, music and dance.

Rulantica:

'Svømmepøl': The large heated outdoor pool offers even more year-round water fun from early summer. Some of the highlights are the 'Svømme-Bar' swim-up bar, geysers and bubble loungers.

Silver Lake City

The existing Camp Resort is being gradually transformed into Silver Lake City. New Western Houses and Comfort Pitches will be available in the Western town this year. One highlight is the large 'Diner Station' buffet restaurant, which is modelled after an old western railway station - complete with a train that is true to the original. In addition, a brewery is moving into Silver Lake City, which will offer its own Europa-Park beer in future - to be enjoyed in the 'Wild Horse Bar' next door. State-of-the-art technology can be experienced through the integration of YULLBE GO, and an adventure playground and mini golf course make for a perfect family experience.

Eatrenalin:

As the new creative mind behind Eatrenalin menus, Alexander Mayer ensures, with his team, that all culinary details coordinate with each other to offer guests an unforgettable taste experience. From 21 March, there will be a new 8-course menu.

Other:

- New employee accommodation, administration building, rehearsal rooms, works fire brigade, hall for parade floats
- Redesign of the Madame Freudenreich Curiosités waiting area to tie in with the TV series (from Autumn 2025 on German TV station KiKA)
- Majorette Factory feat. Alpha Mods P.D. also redesigned
- Delicious soft serve ice cream with many toppings to choose from, mixed in a swirl: The Langnese Happiness Station is moving from the German to the Greek theme area
- New games and consoles in the arcades, among them Mario Kart as a new highlight
- Digital room keys in the hotels
